Mr. and Mrs. Govin Give Large Dance for Debutante Daughter

Tea Is Held During Afternoon at Home at 2230 Massachusetts Avenue to Present Miss May Govin.

Mr. and Mrs. Rafael R. Govin gave a large dance last evening at Rauscher's for their daughter, Miss May Govin, who was formally presented to Washington society in the afternoon at a tea given in their home, at 2230 Massachusetts avertue. Mr. and Mrs. Govin and Miss Govin received the guests in the small reception room and were assisted by Mrs. Bainbridge Colby, Mme. de Cespedes and Mrs. Charles B. Howry. The ballrooms were festooned with southern smilax. With tall palms standing at intervals like sentinels. A seated supper was served shortly after midnight, and later a light repast was served for the late dancers. Mrs. Govin wore a gown of black velvet, made severely plain, and Miss Govin was in French blue brocade with tracery of crystal beads.
